THPA has lawfully ensured that any processors of personal data, acting on its behalf, according to the above mentioned, shall meet all requirements and provide sufficient guarantees to implement appropriate technical and organizational measures in such a manner that such processing will meet the requirements of the GDPR and in general of the applicable legislative and regulatory framework and ensure the protection of the rights of the data subjects.

V. Are the data transferred outside the European Economic Area (E.E.A.) or to international organizations?

THPA may transfer Shareholders' personal data to countries outside the E.E.A. (third countries) or in international organizations under the following circumstances:

- a) when the European Commission has issued an implementing act for the adequacy of personal data protection level within that third country, or the international organization.
- b) when the Shareholder has been specifically informed and has given her/his express consent to THPA, provided also that the other conditions laid down in the legislative framework are met,
- c) where the transfer is necessary for the execution of contractual obligations,
- d) where the transfer is necessary for the establishment, exercise or support of legal claims or the defense of THPA's legal rights,
- e) where the transfer is necessary under a statutory provision or a transnational convention or an international convention, or
- f) for the purposes of the THPA's compliance with rules relating to automatic exchange of information in the taxation area, as those are provided for by the statutory and regulatory framework.

In order to fulfill the obligations under points e) or f) above, THPA may transfer shareholder's personal data to the competent national authorities, in order for them to forward these data to the relevant authorities of third countries.

VI. For how long are the data retained?

The personal data will be stored/kept by THPA for the period of time determined by law and in general required by the legal and/or regulatory framework in force or is required for the purposes of legitimate interests of THPA, for the exercise of claims and for the defense of THPA in case of litigation, for the pursuit of claims of THPA as well as for the performance of contractual obligations and in general in accordance with the respective legal basis and the purpose of their processing.

VII. What rights does the shareholder have for the protection of her/his personal data?

According to GDPR, the personal data subject has the following rights, which may be exercised on case by case basis:

- a) To know which personal data, concerning her/him, are being stored and processed by THPA, their source as well as the purposes of the processing, the categories of the personal data, the recipients or categories of recipients (right of access).

- b) To request for the rectification and/or supplementation of this personal data, so as to be complete and accurate, by submitting any necessary document which shows the need for supplementation or rectification (right to rectification). This is at the same time a Shareholder's obligation.
- c) To request the restriction of processing concerning her/his personal data, among others, when the accuracy of the personal data is contested or the processing is unlawful or the purpose of the processing was eliminated and provided that there is no legitimate reason to retain them (right to restriction of processing).
- d) To deny and/ or object to any further processing of her/his personal data retained by THPA (right to object).
- e) To request for deletion of her/his personal data from THPA's records, when inter alia, there is no longer valid purpose of processing, subject to THPA's obligations and legal rights to retain them, pursuant to the current applicable laws and regulations (right to be forgotten).
- f) To request for the transfer of the data she/he has provided to THPA, in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format or has the right to ask to transmit those data to another controller, provided that the processing is based on consent and is carried out by automated means and subject to THPA's legal rights and obligations to retain the personal data (right to data portability).

THPA has, in any case, the right to refuse the satisfaction of Shareholder's request if, indicatively, the personal data processing is necessary for the retention of subject's capacity as a Shareholder and/or the possession of her/his voting right, for the exercise of her/his rights as THPA's Shareholder or as person having voting right, as well as in case they are necessary for the establishment, exercise or defense of THPA's rights, the compliance of THPA with its legal obligations or the fulfilment of THPA's obligations towards its shareholders.

THPA reserves in any case the right to deny the deletion of Shareholder's personal data if such personal data is essential for the purposes of maintaining the archive of the THPA's shareholders (pursuant to the aforementioned Section III.I), as well as in any case their processing or retention is necessary for the establishment, the exercise and the defense of THPA's legal rights or the fulfilment of THPA's obligations.

The exercise of the right to data portability (point f above) does not imply the deletion of data from THPA's records.

VIII. How can the shareholder exercise her/his rights?

In order to exercise her/his rights, the Shareholder may address THPA:

- In writing to:
Thessaloniki Port Authority S.A.
Pier A, Inside the Port, Thessaloniki P.C. 54625
C/O: Data Protection Officer (DPO)
- Through email to THPA's Data Protection Officer to: dpo@thpa.gr or smavr@yahoo.gr and tomdim@yahoo.gr

THPA shall use its best endeavors to address the shareholders' request within thirty (30) days of its receipt. The abovementioned period may be prolonged for sixty (60) more days, if deemed necessary according to the discretion of THPA, taking into account the complexity of the issue and the number of the pending requests. THPA shall inform the Shareholder within thirty (30) days after receipt of her/his request in any case of prolongation of the abovementioned period, stating the reasons of such prolongation.

If THPA does not take action in relation to a Shareholder's request, it shall inform the Shareholder without delay within thirty (30) days of the receipt of her/his request at the latest, for the reasons it did not take action and for the possibility of the shareholder to submit a complaint and initiate judicial proceedings.

The abovementioned service is provided free of charge. However, in case the requests are obviously unfounded, excessive or repetitive, a reasonable fee may be imposed after the Shareholder has been informed accordingly, or THPA may refuse to respond to such requests.

IX. How are the shareholder's rights protected?

THPA applies an information security management system to ensure the confidentiality and security of the shareholders' data processing and the protection of personal data against accidental or unfair destruction, loss, alteration, unauthorized disclosure or access and any other form of unfair processing.

X. Complaints submission

The Shareholder has the right to file a complaint with the Personal Data Protection Authority (www.dpa.gr), which is the competent supervisory authority for the protection of the fundamental rights and freedoms of natural persons with regard to their personal data processing, when she/he assumes that her/his rights are infringed in any way, as well as the right to initiate judicial proceedings.
