

Panagiotis Stampoulidis

Executive Director, Executive Member

Panagiotis Stampoulidis is the Executive Director at the Hellenic Republic Asset Development Fund, Executive Member of the BoD, and Head of the Project Preparation Facility Unit (PPF). Since 2021 the Project Preparation Facility is responsible to mature projects -amounting to over €3,5 billion- conduct tender and contract award processes and monitor the execution of contracts deemed of Strategic Importance, particularly regarding projects implemented through the National Recovery and Sustainability Plan “Greece 2.0” framework funded by the European Union -NextGenerationEu. He is a graduate of the Higher Technological Education Centre of Western Macedonia and holds an MBA from the University of Wales in the UK. With a successful 15-year career in administration, he is an experienced executive in the running of private and public organizations. He has significant experience in designing and implementing development plans, restructuring, and executing public contracts. He has managed numerous technical and financial projects, as well as projects for restructuring and streamlining of corporate procedures. He began his career as an executive in the food sector. He served as CEO of the Central Markets and Fishery Organizations (CMFO SA), responsible for the Central Markets of Athens and Patras and the 11 Fish Markets throughout Greece. In 2013, he created the innovative Retail Consumers Wing at Rentis, and he also prepared two PPP projects. For two years (2019-2021), he was the Secretary General for Commerce and Consumer Protection, implementing dozens of reforms in the functioning of the market, consumer protection, and implementation of public contracts worth over €100 million. Since November 2023 he has assumed the duties of Chairman of the Board of Directors of Alexandroupolis Port Authority S.A. (O.L.A. S.A.), while since January 2023 he participates in the Board of Directors of Thessaloniki Port Authority S.A. (Th.P.A. S.A.) as a non-executive Member and as a Member of the Audit Committee.